OBITUARY.

MRS. CHARLES LONDON.

Mrs. Adelia C. (Phelps) London, wife of Charles London, passed away at her home on Case street on Saturday morning at 1:45 o'clock, after a painful illness. She was the only daughter of Theodatus Phelps, who for many years was interested in the marble business. She was born in 1821, and while she was blind and over 90 years of age, she bore her affliction very patiently. She was a kind wife and mother. Her suffering was great for many years. She is the last one of a large number who for many years ago sang in the Episcopal church choir. She leaves behind to mourn her loss an aged husband (87 years of age), Charles London, three sons, T. P. and E. W. London of Stamford, N. Y., three grandsons and one granddaughter. The funeral was held from her home and burial was in Case street cemetery. Rev. Mr. Bold officiated.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank all who kindly assisted us in the death and burial of dear mother and wife. Also the singers.
CHARLES LONDON,

MIDDLEBURY LOCALS

The first number in the Century club course will be given next Wednesday night by the Boston Octette.

N. J. Sanford has bought the James Duncan house and lot on Court street from the Duncan estate.

The Congregational church rummage sale will be held the last week in October in the lower town hall.

Mrs. H. D. Archer went on Saturday for a visit of ten days with relatives and friends in New York state.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Cushman have returned from a two weeks' wedding trip and will make their home on Court street.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rose, Isaac L. Rogers, Mrs. Charles Rogers, Fred LaPan, Mr. and Mrs. McNaughton and Walter Allen have gone to Boston, Mass., for a week's stay.

Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, president General N. S. D. A. R., has accepted an invitation from Vermont's State Regent to be present at the State conference at Rutland, October 19 and 20.

Dr. Isaac Sterns has moved his family to the Goodrich farm on East street which he recently purchased. Mr. Goodrich with his son, George, will go to California where they will make their future home.

George Reynolds of the Philadelphia branch of the Vermont Marble company has been appointed superintendent of the Middlebury branch of the company's plant. The office was held by Thomas F. Burns who recently resigned.

The Ladies' Missionary association of the Congregational church had a very pleasant meeting Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Jessica Sylvester at the home of her father, Former Governor John W. Stewart. There was a large attendance and dainty refreshments were served.

The following letters remain in the local postoffice unclaimed: Mrs. C. R. Babcock, Miss Mazie Bachmann, Miss Mamie Bachmann, Mrs. Jacob De Leemo, Mrs. J. A. Hill, Mrs. Geo. E. Johnson, Mrs. E. M. Mooers, Mrs. Geo. L. Robinson, Miss Rebecca W. Wright, Harry Brusie, A. W. Clark, Leo M. Corkran, Daniel Dodge, H. C. George, George M. Henry, J. C. Holmes, James McDonald, Fred Mumley, Homer Kea, Patrick Kiley, Jack Kress, Paul Lafountain, Harry J. Pinney, J. Rogers, Theodore Bullock, Bennie Trudo, James Tyrrie, J. H. Wright, W. Wulstern.

Only one old soldier appeared before the board of pension examiners here at the regular monthly meeting on Wednesday. The number of persons to be examined has, under the recent new law, dwindled down to such a point that the members of the examining boards are in the belief that the boards will all soon be discontinued.

Hadley's moving pictures will be seen at the opera house on Tuesday, October 17. There will be a matinee and an evening entertainment. The proceeds are to be applied to the carpet fund of the Methodist church. Mr. Hadley has an exceptionally fine lot of pictures both educational and entertaining.

WHITING.

Miss Edith Couter of Middlebury visited Charles Lewis and family last week.

Albert Kane and Miss Gladys Kane of New Boston, N. H., were recent guests of their cousins, Harold and Christine Webster.

Saturday evening, September 30, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis was filled with friends who met there to give them a surprise and congratulate them on the thirtieth anniversary of their marriage. A very fine extension table and an oak rocker, beside gifts of linen, were presented by Rev. T. A. Howard in behalf of the friends, and refreshments were served. The occasion was a very pleasant one and the friends departed at a late hour wishing them many returns of the day.

Middlebury, O. Goddard, O.

Middlebury opened her football season here on Saturday with a game with Goddard seminary. Neither side was able to score. The Goddard team missed two chances to drop kick a goal and Middlebury failed once in the same art. Sherbourne, full back, and Johnson, left half, excelled for Goddard. Craig was not far behind.

The opening game was largely attended by the students and a good many from the village. At times the excitement ran high and both sides were heartily cheered. Middlebury showed her weakness through lack of team work, especially in the line. During the game it was learned that Captain King had been injured and had to be taken out of the game. Shea was put in to finish the game in the second half.

College Notes.

Tuesday afternoon The Campus board held its first meeting to outline plans for the publication of the college monthly during the coming year. Editor-in-Chief Taylor hopes to make The Campus better than ever.

Tuesday evening the Y. M. C. A. held its customary weekly meeting. Prof. Charles B. Wright gave an interesting talk on the value of application to the seeker for success. Next week will be devoted to the initiation of new members.

Mr. Fisher, who graduated from Middlebury in 1910 and has been with the New York American league team for the past two seasons, arrived in Middlebury Wednesday night. Mr. Fisher will act as coach and physical instructor at Middlebury. He is an excellent athlete and the student body expect to see immediate results.

Middlebury goes to Montpelier Saturday to play Norwich. The Middlebury team is still in an experimental stage, but Captain King feels confident that his men will make a start in the victory world.

WEYBRIDGE.

The class of Bible students will hold a social at the residence of Mrs. Garfield Grant on Friday evening, October 13. A fine programme will be given. Other amusements will follow. Come and have a good time. This class is made up of the senior Sunday school class of young ladies of the local M. E. church and the social will be worthy of your attendance.

We learn by private letters of the promotion of Howard Wright, formerly of this town, who has been employed at the Bristol Manufacturing Co. plant at Bristol, to quite a responsible position, superintendent of the "cloth room" with 25 employees under his supervision. This speaks well for the young man after only a two years' service. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wright of our town.

A light case of diphtheria at Albert Gordon's, a boy of 12 years. Dr. Dorey attends.

Mrs. Hattie Robbins is still quite seriously ill. Mrs. Adams is a little more comfortable.

The Ladies' Aid society met with Mrs. F. A. Castle of New Haven Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Jake Eells of Rochester is visiting in town. She recently returned from the Mary Fletcher hospital.

A good number from here are planning to visit Burlington during merchants' week.

Mrs. E. A. Adams, Mrs. J. W. Robbins and Mrs. C. W. Shaw are on the sick list.

The Y. M. C. A. of Weybridge will meet next Wednesday evening, October 11, in the town hall. A full attendance is earnestly desired.

Funeral of Hiram Sessions.

The funeral of Hiram Sessions, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sessions of Smith and Brown street, West Rutland, who died Saturday morning at the Proctor hospital after nearly a month's illness with typhoid fever, was held from his late home Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock and was largely attended. The bearers were Harry Williams, M. J. Lahiff, Dale S. Atwood, Karl I. Sterns, Winfred Huntley, Thomas Ormsbee, George G. Taylor, Howe Cassavaunt, Earl Tracey and G. L. Brighton, all of Middlebury college and members of the Chi Psi fraternity of which Mr. Sessions was a member.

After the services at the house were over, a delegation from the college which attended the services, lined the walk from the house to the road. The profusion of flowers filled one of the hacks to overflowing. The burial was in the family lot at Proctor. Rev. Norman Seaver of Rutland officiated both at the house and the grave.

Among those who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wright and Mrs. John Spencer of this village, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Glasson of Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Hawley and Mrs. Arthur Piper of Vergennes, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Moore of Shoreham, Miss Eliza Sessions of East Middlebury and M. W. Terry of Orient, L. I., besides a large number of friends from Proctor, Fowler and Rutland.

GOLDEN WEDDING.

Fiftieth Anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. George H. Bailey.

The Congregational parsonage in Weybridge was the scene of a family gathering this week, culminating in the golden wedding anniversary on Wednesday of Rev. and Mrs. George H. Bailey. The celebration was quiet, owing to Mr. Bailey's health, and only the immediate family was present, consisting of the five children and their families and Mrs. Bailey's sister, Mrs. G. W. Trow of Washington, D. C., who has been spending the summer in Weybridge. A large number of friends near and far sent messages of congratulation by mail in various forms of poetry, prose, checks, gold and other gifts. The Addison County Association of Ministers, of which Mr. Bailey is senior member, sent greetings and gold. Many of his parishioners in churches which he has served in the past in Vermont, New York and Massachusetts, testified to the affectionate remembrance of their former pastor and his wife.

George Bailey was a student in Middlebury college in the class of 1864 when the war broke out. Like many other students he offered his service to the government, enlisting in the Sixth Vermont on the morning of October 4, 1861, and in the afternoon being married to Miss Cairn T. Bundy of Morrisville. After the war he graduated from Bangor Theological seminary in 1867, and has had pastorates since in Newport, Vt., Griggsville, Ill., Fairport, Moravia and Franklin, N. Y., Ashfield, Mass., and Ferrisburg and Weybridge, Vt. During his five years in Weybridge he has seen all the other Congregational churches in the county change pastors once or twice.

The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and good cheer prevailed within the house despite the driving storm outside. The children, all of whom were present, are Rev. and Mrs. Henry L. Bailey of Longmeadow, Mass., Miss Alice P. Bailey, at home, William R. Bailey and Mr. Mrs. William E. Hawkes and son, Ray, of Conway, Mass., and Charles C. Bailey and bride of Topeka, Kansas. Henry and Charles as well as their father are local college men of the classes of '86 and '98. The reunion ended on Thursday, most of the party starting for home on that day, while two or three will linger till Saturday and Monday.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The Middlebury Y. M. C. A. presented Dr. H. L. Averill, president of the association, a nice umbrella last Monday evening, in recognition of his valuable services, the occasion being his birthday.

The literary meeting recently held was an entire success, nearly every member responding.

The group of Boy Scouts will have a camp supper and hike Saturday afternoon and evening.

The first meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Bible class will be held at the rooms Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. for organization and selection of course of study.

A. A. Robertson of the college is assisting G. D. Rahill in the Scout work.

The Young Woman's Christian association of the college is using the Y. M. C. A. rooms on Monday afternoon for welfare work among the younger girls of the village.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure if taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for a list of testimonials.
